

Designed to Sell:

Does Good Architecture &
Design Translate to Higher Property Values?

Moderated by Dennis Wedlick
at
The Center for Architecture
536 LaGuardia Place
New York, NY

June 15, 2005
6 - 8pm

A Panel Discussion with:

*Thomas Baker, AIA
(Santiago Calatrava)

*Michele Conte
(Brown Harris Stevens)

*Costas Kondylis, AIA
(Costas Kondylis and Partners LLP)

*Chad Oppenheim
(Oppenheim Architecture + Design)

*Frank Sciamè
(F.J. Sciamè Construction Co., Inc.)

*Christopher Wilson
(Stribling and Associates)

Please join architect Dennis Wedlick as he gathers leaders in the fields of real estate, residential development, and architecture to explore the impact of good design on property value. The panel discussion will be followed by a Question & Answer session. Please join us for refreshments after the event.

RSVP to Clifford Public Relations,
212.358.0800 x 11.